

For Nonprofits, by Nonprofits.

Mike Heinisch, Kent Youth and Family Services

Mike is the Specific Projects Specialist at Kent Youth and Family Services after 21 years as Executive Director of Kent Youth and Family Services and is a Licensed Mental Health Counselor and a Children's Mental Health Specialist. Mike is Board President of Community Center for Educational Results (CCER), "The Road Map Project"; Previous Chair of the Youth and Family Services Association of King County 2000-2020; Governing Council Former 4x Chair Pacific Hospital Preservation Development Authority, 2012-2020; Co-chair of the King County Alliance for Human Services, 2010-2020.

Mike served on the King County "MIDD" Advisory Committee since MIDD implementation in 2008 until 2019 and served two-year term as MIDD "OC" Co-Chair. He served on the King County Youth Action Plan Strategy Team. In 2015 on the King County Best Starts for Kids Campaign Cabinet. He was a member of the City of Kent Human Services Commission for multiple terms and was a long-time board member of the South King Council of Human Services, serving three times as Chair of SKCHS. He was previously a Board Member of United Way of King County serving two terms and continues as a member of UWKC's Public Policy Impact Council and Finance & Administration Committee. Mike was named Person of the Year by Kent Reporter newspaper in January 2014 and Citizen of the Year by the Kent Chamber of Commerce, April 2015 and recipient of a King County Proclamation, December 15, 2020 Mike Heinisch Day in King County, WA.

He has been part of the NPIP Board of Directors since November 16, 2016 and is appreciative of the opportunity to serve again and represent the NPIP membership.