Jon Andrus, Catholic Charities Eastern Washington

Jon Andrus has served as the Finance Director/Chief Financial Officer for Catholic Charities Eastern Washington (CCEW) since December, 2006. CCEW was established in 1912 and continues to provide food, shelter, clothing, education, counseling, and other support to those in need, regardless of creed, within the 13 counties of Eastern Washington. CCEW operates programs that provide childbirth and parenting assistance, early childhood education, emergency shelter, senior and family housing, nutritional education and food assistance, counseling, refugee and immigration legal services, and senior transportation and chore services.

In addition to serving on the board of NPIP since August 2015, Jon has served on, or has provided support for, finance and investment committees of several not-for-profit organizations in Eastern Washington.

CCEW has been a member of NPIP since 2010, and strongly supports the efforts of NPIP to provide affordable insurance solutions, training, and risk management services to nonprofit organizations. Jon is very appreciative of the opportunity to serve on the NPIP board and will continue to support the continuation and growth of services that benefit nonprofits, which provide such valuable services to our communities.
